Dear James,

I don't really know what to say, or even how to say this. I don't know how much to thank you. You have been a very big help to me & you always seem to be there when I need you! I'm going to miss you very much when you go to college & we better still keep in touch! You are one of my best friends & no matter what happens between us you always will be! I'll never forget the excellent times we shared together along with the not so good times but these are not a part of my memory of you! This night has been worse than hell for me & by you being there it really helped me out alot! Thank you for everything although that word doesn't mean much but it means it thanks! You know that if you ever need me, I'll be there (as always) maybe someday you'll learn a lesson about who your "true" friends are & you know who isn't! Well I wish you the most happiness in the world. Have a great time in college. This summer will be excellent & one we'll never forget. Thanks again! You better not forget about me when you leave! Take care - I love you! Love always
Paul

A dark, high-contrast photograph of a stage. Two rows of bright spotlights are visible, one on the left and one on the right, creating a series of bright circles against the dark background. The stage floor is dark and reflective, showing some light from the spotlights. The overall mood is dramatic and mysterious.

There are two kinds of people in this world- those who watch things happen, and those who make things happen.

During our three years at Commack South, we have all been touched by a man who makes things happen. Whether it be through his classes, his devotion to the drama, or his friendship, he has enriched our lives by his presence here at Commack South.

It is to Mr. Kastrinos that we dedicate this book.

A Friend's Prayer

If I were to leave here tomorrow, Would you still remember me?
Would you remember all the times we had,
the good and the bad?
Would you remember all the days spent here,
year after year?
All of the love and the pain?
Some of the tears still remain.
The cries of hope and happiness, of failure and success.
Many faces I still see, many voices I hear.
But would you remember me after all these years.
I ask you this because I know, How far apart we may go,
That one thing for sure I know is true,
And that is, I will always remember you.
In all you say,
In all you do,
Keep in mind,
I can't forget you.

Life

He pushed the car door closed with his left hand and in his . . . right hand he held a brown cardboard box against his side. The top of the box was soggy and dotted with teeth marks. A crisp wind blew against him. Quickly, he ran to prevent the box from absorbing the chill. He leaned the box on the course, brick wall adjacent to the door. His key slid into the lock with irregularity. With a turn of the knob and a sharp shove to overcome the uncoiled door, the man entered the house with the box.

He was met in the hallway by a young boy, anxious to see what his father concealed so well. The man placed the box on the floor and ripped one side away, revealing a furry, light brown puppy. The puppy darted toward the boy and jumped onto his awaiting lap. Simultaneously, he wrapped his arms about the dog and shouted his thanks again and again.

Chip Allgrove

After life, we see a movie of our entire life. Heaven is an enjoyable movie which means you did things that made you happy and had many accomplishments. Hell of course, is a depressing movie where you see yourself doing bad things which brought unpleasant moments.

In every show there are those who aid in all facets and stages of the production. The producers who organize and manage the myriad details, and the directors who translate ideas into vibrant reality both contribute immeasurably to the final quality of the endeavor.

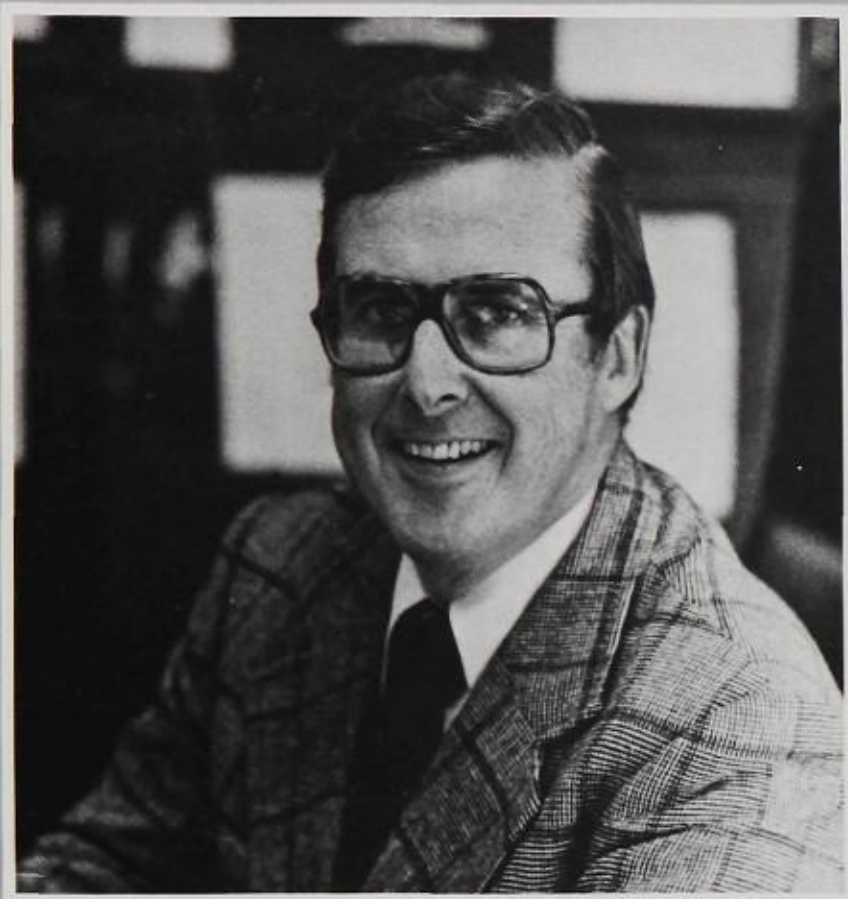

We at South have our own producers and directors who have helped us during our three year run.

SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

John J. McCarthy-Principal

Dear Seniors,

High School days are the "stuff dreams are made of." You, the Seniors of 1980, have inspired this school for the past three years, and especially throughout this year. Your excitement and enthusiasm have helped Commack South renew itself. Once again, we have welcomed ninth graders. One-third of the teaching staff were new to the building and so was I. Your leadership created the "Wizard of G.O." to welcome us, a successful Homecoming for our alumni, and a Senior Prom for all of us to enjoy.

Now you will be using the talents and the maturity you developed here in other parts of the world. For many of you, the future represents further education in college. You can build with confidence on the firm academic foundation you were given here. Whether now or later, jobs also lie ahead with demands for hard work and daily responsibilities. We hope you learned those things here as well.

Remember always that you can be proud to have been students and graduates of Commack South. I can assure you that the teachers here are glad to have known you.

WALK TALL in the future with your eyes fixed on the skies and your feet planted firmly on the ground. Create your destiny. You have our support.

Come back and visit us whenever you can.

Sincerely,

The cast, understudies and production assistants in every show work hard and therefore need time to unwind and forget the strenuous life of the theatre. These activities, spanning a vast variety of interests, enable them to relax, yet expand their horizons and thus improve the quality of their art and ultimately their life.

Just as the Theatre Guilds provide mental and emotional distraction for the members of the Company, sports provide a needed physical release for the players. Through the excitement of the activity and the feelings of personal accomplishment, the drama of the playing field and stage are one.

You who are gymnast, and comrades of quest.
You who are athletes,
yet unlike the rest.
Strengthen your body, but neglect not your mind.

For they are not separate.
a fact you will find.
Of all that I know, there is nothing more true, If a winner you are,
then the maker is you.

The pleasure of sport was so often the chance to indulge the cessation of time itself — the pitcher dawdling on the mound, the skier poised at the top of a mountain trail, the basketball player at set point over his opponent — all of them savoring a moment before committing themselves to action.

SOFTBALL

There are many people who contribute to the production of every show. However, it falls on the shoulders of the cast to take the words and theme of the script and transform them into a characterization of life — moving, flowing, vital. It takes time, determination and hard work, yet through perseverance the players accomplish their goal — the initiation of thought, emotion and insight into life.

Success never comes without hardships. Difficulties always arise to try to defeat a victory. Our class has rarely had to deal with these obstacles. Through your dedication, you guided us to success, complication free. When we did experience trouble, you were there. You listened and consoled - compromised and turned our tears to laughter. For this, the class of 1980 will always be grateful, to you, our class advisors.

How do you say good - bye?
 The words are there But nothing is said.
 All the moments shared
 We will keep forever,

 Well as in our minds.

 Seem so distant in time,
 But so near in thought.

How do you say good - bye?

Searching

Since I found out there was more,
Every day I was looking alone.
And beauty chased by tragic laughter Reflections in a many-colored glass dome.
"Comedy to those who think, tragedy to those who feel."
Happiness to be between two eternities, Inside me is that quest.
Nothing can bring me closer to answering these uncertainties Growing, painful at its worst, transcendentalism at its best.

The image features a dark, textured background, possibly a stage or a night sky. A white, scalloped border runs horizontally across the lower portion of the image. In the bottom left corner, there is a faint, glowing, diagonal streak of light.

At the fall of the curtain, we reflect on the play which has been presented before us. As we do in the theatre, we do in our lives. At the end of an act we look back, recalling the good and the bad. As we come to the close of our high school years, we give you, the year in review.

Future

The windows that I look through Show the future goals I set
The things I will accomplish And the gifts that I will get

I look upon my future
As though you will travel along To keep my spirits going and my sometime withering hopes strong

Take sometime to be with me Just knowing that you care Will keep me believing That my future lies somewhere

— Jill McNamara

Childhood days

On the clothes scattered 'round the floor
My stuffed Panda in the corner of the room In the waste paper basket are papers

Rumpled and wrinkled Old English compositions, I presume

Like the baseball cap on my bedpost
And the autographed picture of Willie Mays They're all just silly memories
Of my childhood days

The same pink piggybank sits on my desk
With my mitt from Grand Those days in the backyard playing baseball

What fun I had

The calander hangs on the wall circling Monday, the Fourth of July.
And now I realize How fast the years slipped by Those days become more meaningful As I grow more and more And guess those silly childhood memories

I really do adore

— Jill McNamara

Questions.

So many questions
pounding in my mind;
You listen, so patiently to my questions, thoughts, uncertainty.

My mind racing with whys
Searching
Seeking for answers
You nod, say I understand Do you?
Can you?

Long conversations probing, emotional grasping for unknown answers Longing for reasons but only your kind words of I wish I could say something anything to quiet your thoughts

Needing answers any answer a silent look, caring, a wish that you could respond and ease a mind no, you're not crazy I do understand

— Linda Donofrio

MEMORIES

THINKING BACK, I REMEMBER HALLS AND CLOCKS, TEACHERS, AND BELLS, COMBINATIONS,

24-0-12

CHALK DUST CLINGING TO BLACK ERASER.
THE CLUNKING OF CLOGS, THE CLICKING OF HEELS,
SNEAKERS SHOES,

SHUFFLING, SHUFFLING.
BUT THE YEARS ROLL BY, AND SOON
I WILL LEAVE HERE, WITH SMILES AND TEARS, TAKING SOME WITH ME,
LEAVING SOME BEHIND.

A WORD OF ADVICE . . .
GO NOW, FROM THIS DAY ON FULFILL YOUR DREAMS, YOUR HOPES,
MAKE THEM COME TRUE.
AND GO NOW,
FROM THIS TIME AND PLACE,
MAKE YOUR OWN SPACE, DO WHAT YOU WANT TO DO AND BE YOU.

— JOHN MINICHINI

James,

you're one of the best friends I've ever had and it's just not gonna be the same hangin' out with out ya. We had some really excellent times together (remember the yes concert, the outlaws and the other dozen or 2 concerts we went to together). I hope we'll have some more excellent time in college and in the rest of your life. I'm sure you'll be friends forever - don't forget to write when you're in college - health + happiness 4eva

Dear James,
It's been great knowing you - you're a really excellent person and we've had a lot of good times together.
Take care, and good luck.

Love Beth

James,
Even though I don't know you that well what I do know is you're a pissa and hope to see more of you during the summer Lake Care and Best of Luck in College
Love
Jammy
